

Jack Rikerd

Flagstaff, AZ 86001 | jsr449@nau.edu

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- First Year Student at NAU pursuing a future in the entertainment industry, with an emphasis on the development of immersive experiences
 - 4+ years of experience in programming languages such as Python, Java, Javascript, C++, etc.
 - 5+ years of experience in video game development, involved in the development of three game projects within the past year
 - Hardworking and passionate worker who collaborates seamlessly with new project teams
-

EDUCATION

Northern Arizona University, Immersive Media & Games, Bachelor of Science

AUG 2025 - CURRENT | FLAGSTAFF, AZ

EXPERIENCE

IMG-186: Game History & Theory | Northern Arizona University

3 CREDIT HOURS

- Participated in a lecture and project-based course teaching the basic history and development of video games
- Strengthened personal creative writing, project management, and development skills in the Link-Based Game project, working in a program called Twine and iterating over multiple drafts and playtests
- Developed collaborative skills in the Tangible Game and Graphical Game projects through cooperative work and task delegation in a group setting

PSY-101: Introduction to Psychology | Northern Arizona University

3 CREDIT HOURS

- Participated in a lecture-based course focusing on the scientific study of human thought and behavior, gaining knowledge in many different disciplines of psychology
- Developed interpersonal workplace strategies based on social psychology concepts taught within the class
- Communicated with other students regarding course content and upcoming deadlines outside of class on a weekly basis

CS-126: Computer Science I | Northern Arizona University

3 CREDIT HOURS

- Participated in a lecture-based course teaching the basics of Computer Science through the programming language Python
 - Practiced applicable skills through weekly programming projects, as well as partner-based programming in the accompanying Lab
 - Developed problem solving skills based on decomposition, learning to outline and break down future tasks into manageable parts
 - Learned appropriate documentation skills for sharing projects with fellow programmers or clients
-